From Strength to Strength

the annie wright school 1975

Thank you, Mr. Hill for always telling us the truth, popular or not for caring enough to understand our side for those last minute chapel services for the jokes and sick humor that lightened bad situations for accepting us as people, and for not seeing us as "only" students - from the class of '75 to our faithful advisor of three years-those about to graduate salute you!

The song of the voice

Kahlil Gibran

Those who endeavor to change our ways, laboring to save this planet and its human and animal inhabitants, often pin their hopes for constructive action on our self-interest and our capacity for listening to the voice of reason. Their argument runs true: whatever man is doing against wildlife and its chances of survival, he does against himself and his own future.

student life

The thing of it is, we must live with the living.

Montaigne

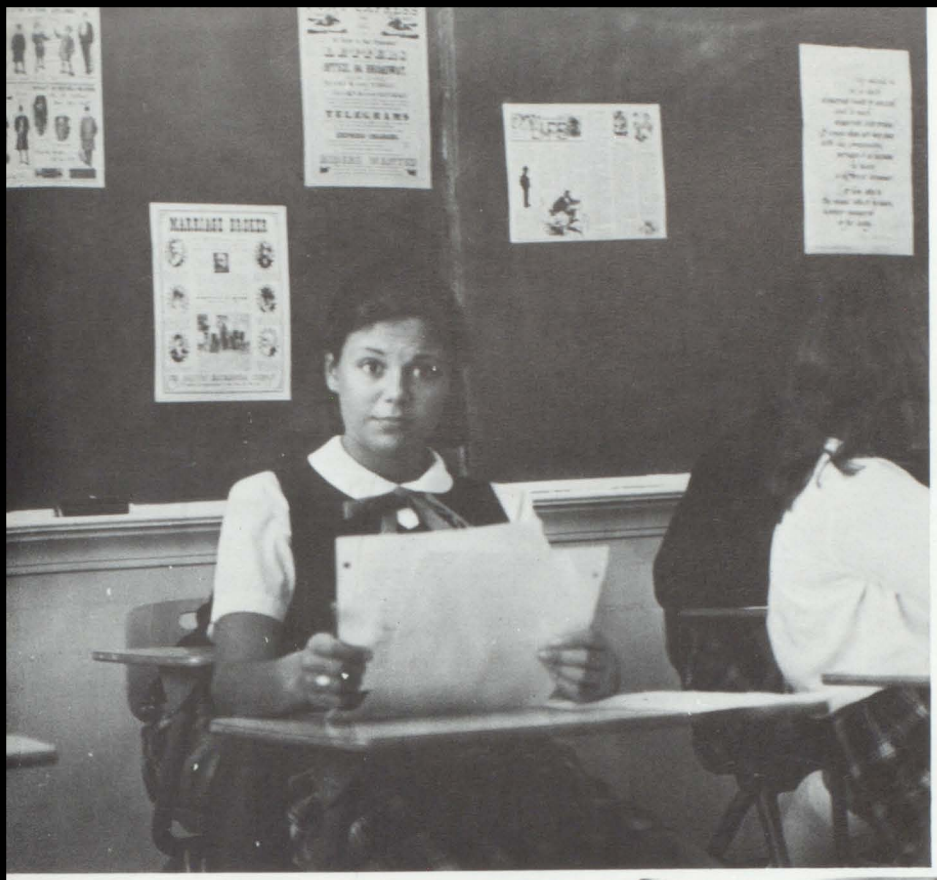

A wise man once told a youth that he should learn to entertain three things: a great idea, another person, and himself.

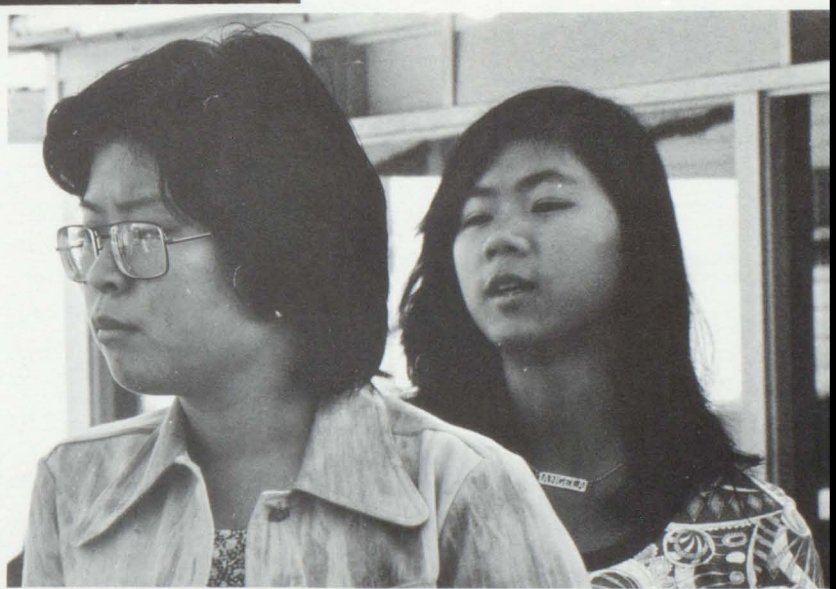

People are lonely because they build walls instead of bridges.

Joseph Newton

Come speak with me. Speech is civilization itself. A word, even the most contrary word, establishes contact: it is silence which isolates.

Thomas Mann

(found on a concentration camp wall)

I believe in the sun even when it is not shining.

I believe in love
even when I feel it not.

I believe in God
even when He is silent.

Man is the only animal that laughs and weeps;
for he is the only animal that is struck with the difference between what things are,
and what they ought to be.

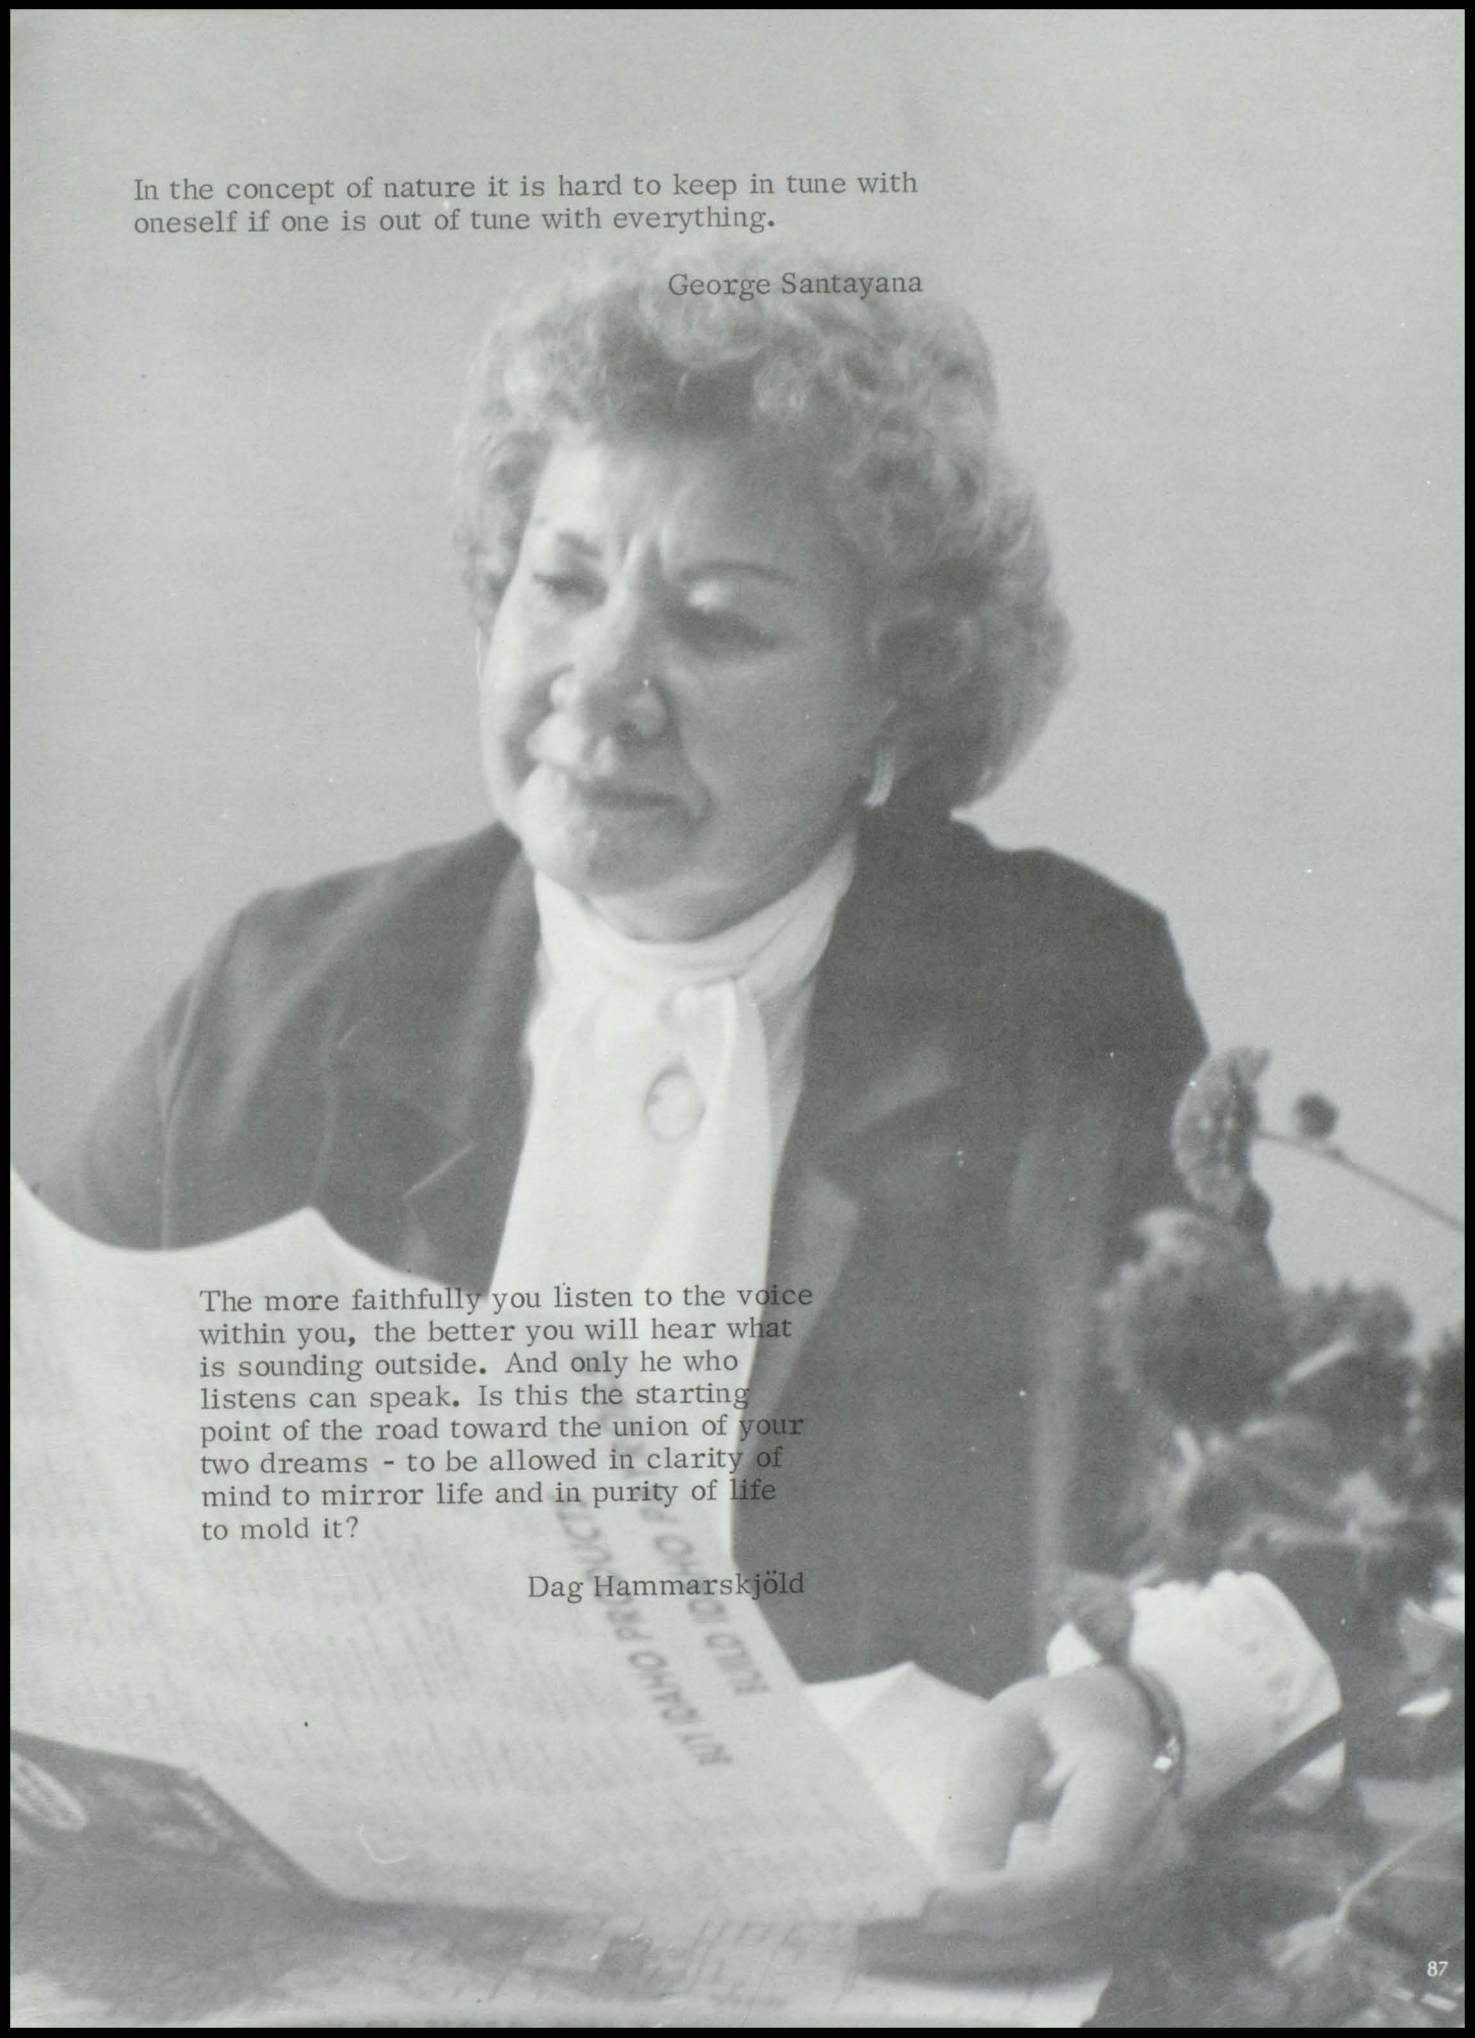

William Hazlitt

The superior man is distressed by the limitations of his ability; he is not distressed by the fact that men do not recognise the ability he has.
Confucius

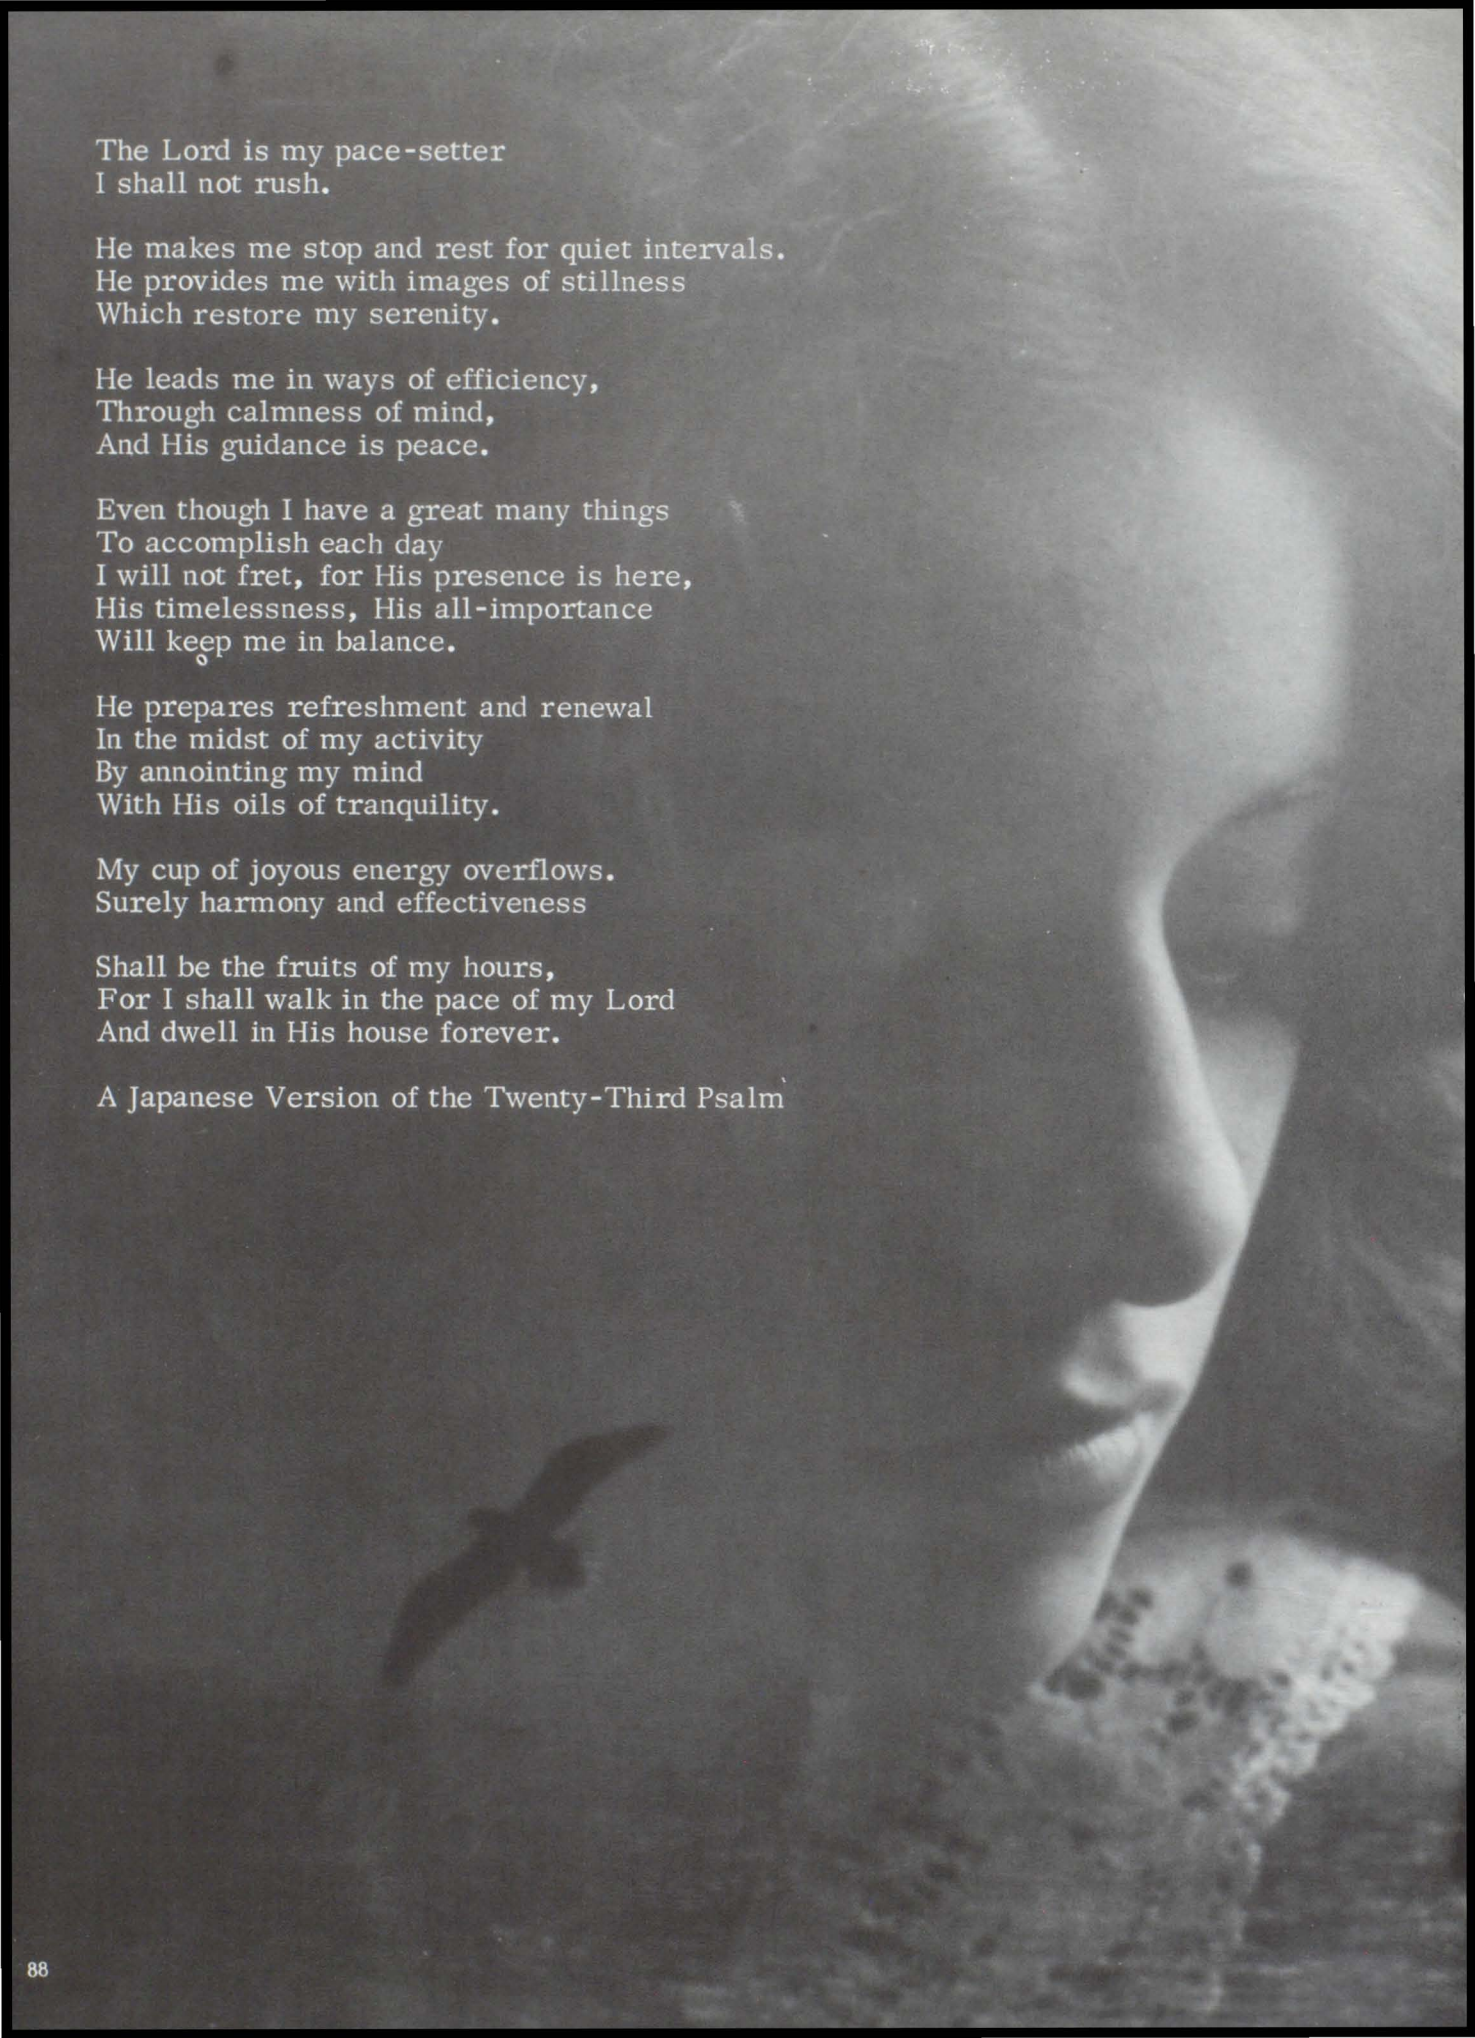

In the concept of nature it is hard to keep in tune with oneself if one is out of tune with everything.

George Santayana

The more faithfully you listen to the voice within you, the better you will hear what is sounding outside. And only he who listens can speak. Is this the starting point of the road toward the union of your two dreams - to be allowed in clarity of mind to mirror life and in purity of life to mold it?

Dag Hammarskjöld

The Lord is my pace-setter
I shall not rush.

He makes me stop and rest for quiet intervals.
He provides me with images of stillness
Which restore my serenity.

He leads me in ways of efficiency,
Through calmness of mind,
And His guidance is peace.

Even though I have a great many things
To accomplish each day
I will not fret, for His presence is here,
His timelessness, His all-importance
Will keep me in balance.

He prepares refreshment and renewal
In the midst of my activity
By annointing my mind
With His oils of tranquility.

My cup of joyous energy overflows.
Surely harmony and effectiveness

Shall be the fruits of my hours,
For I shall walk in the pace of my Lord
And dwell in His house forever.

A Japanese Version of the Twenty-Third Psalm

The first step in filling a container is to be sure it is empty.

Dory Previn
There is a point at which everything becomes simple and there is no longer any question of choice, because all you have staked will be lost if you look back. Life's point of no return.
Dag Hammarskjöld

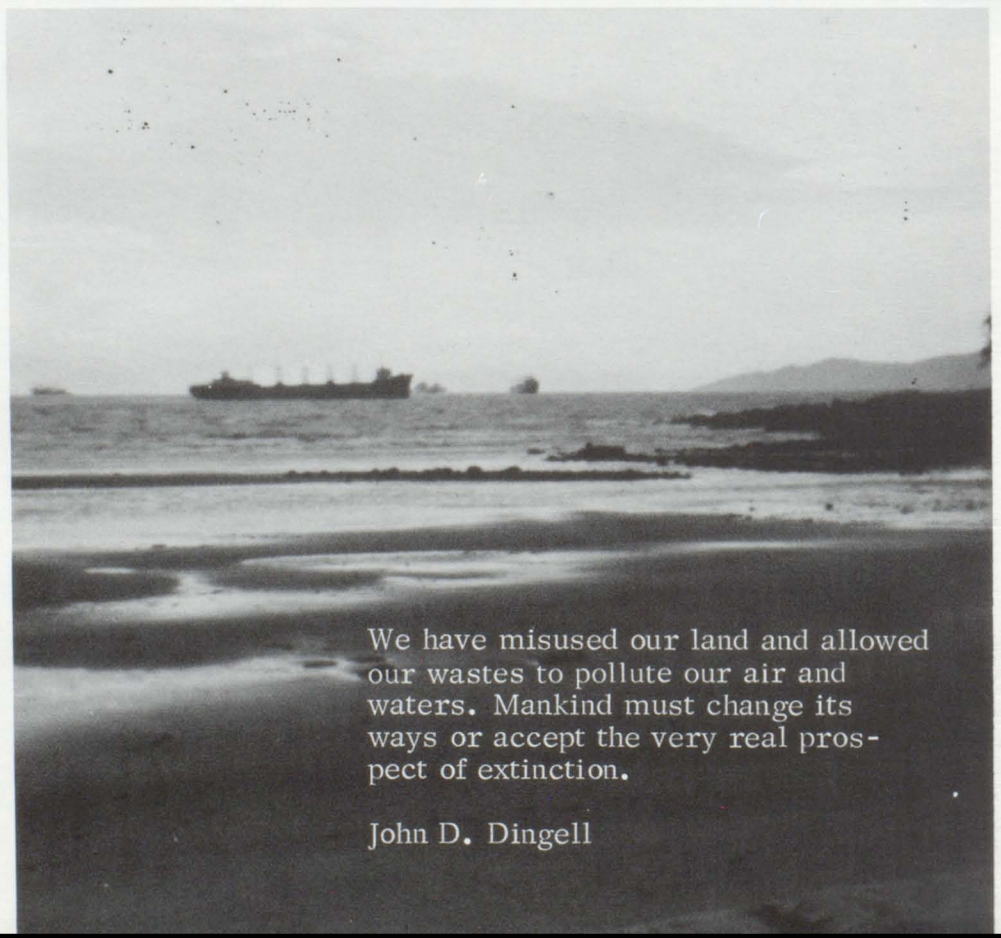

A man's mind,
stretched by a new idea,
can never go back to its original dimension.
Oliver Wendall Holmes

There are essentially four kinds of risk:
The risk one must accept.
The risk one can afford to take.
The risk one cannot afford to take.
The risk one cannot afford not to take.
Peter Drucker

Only the hand that erases can write the true thing.

Meister Eckhart

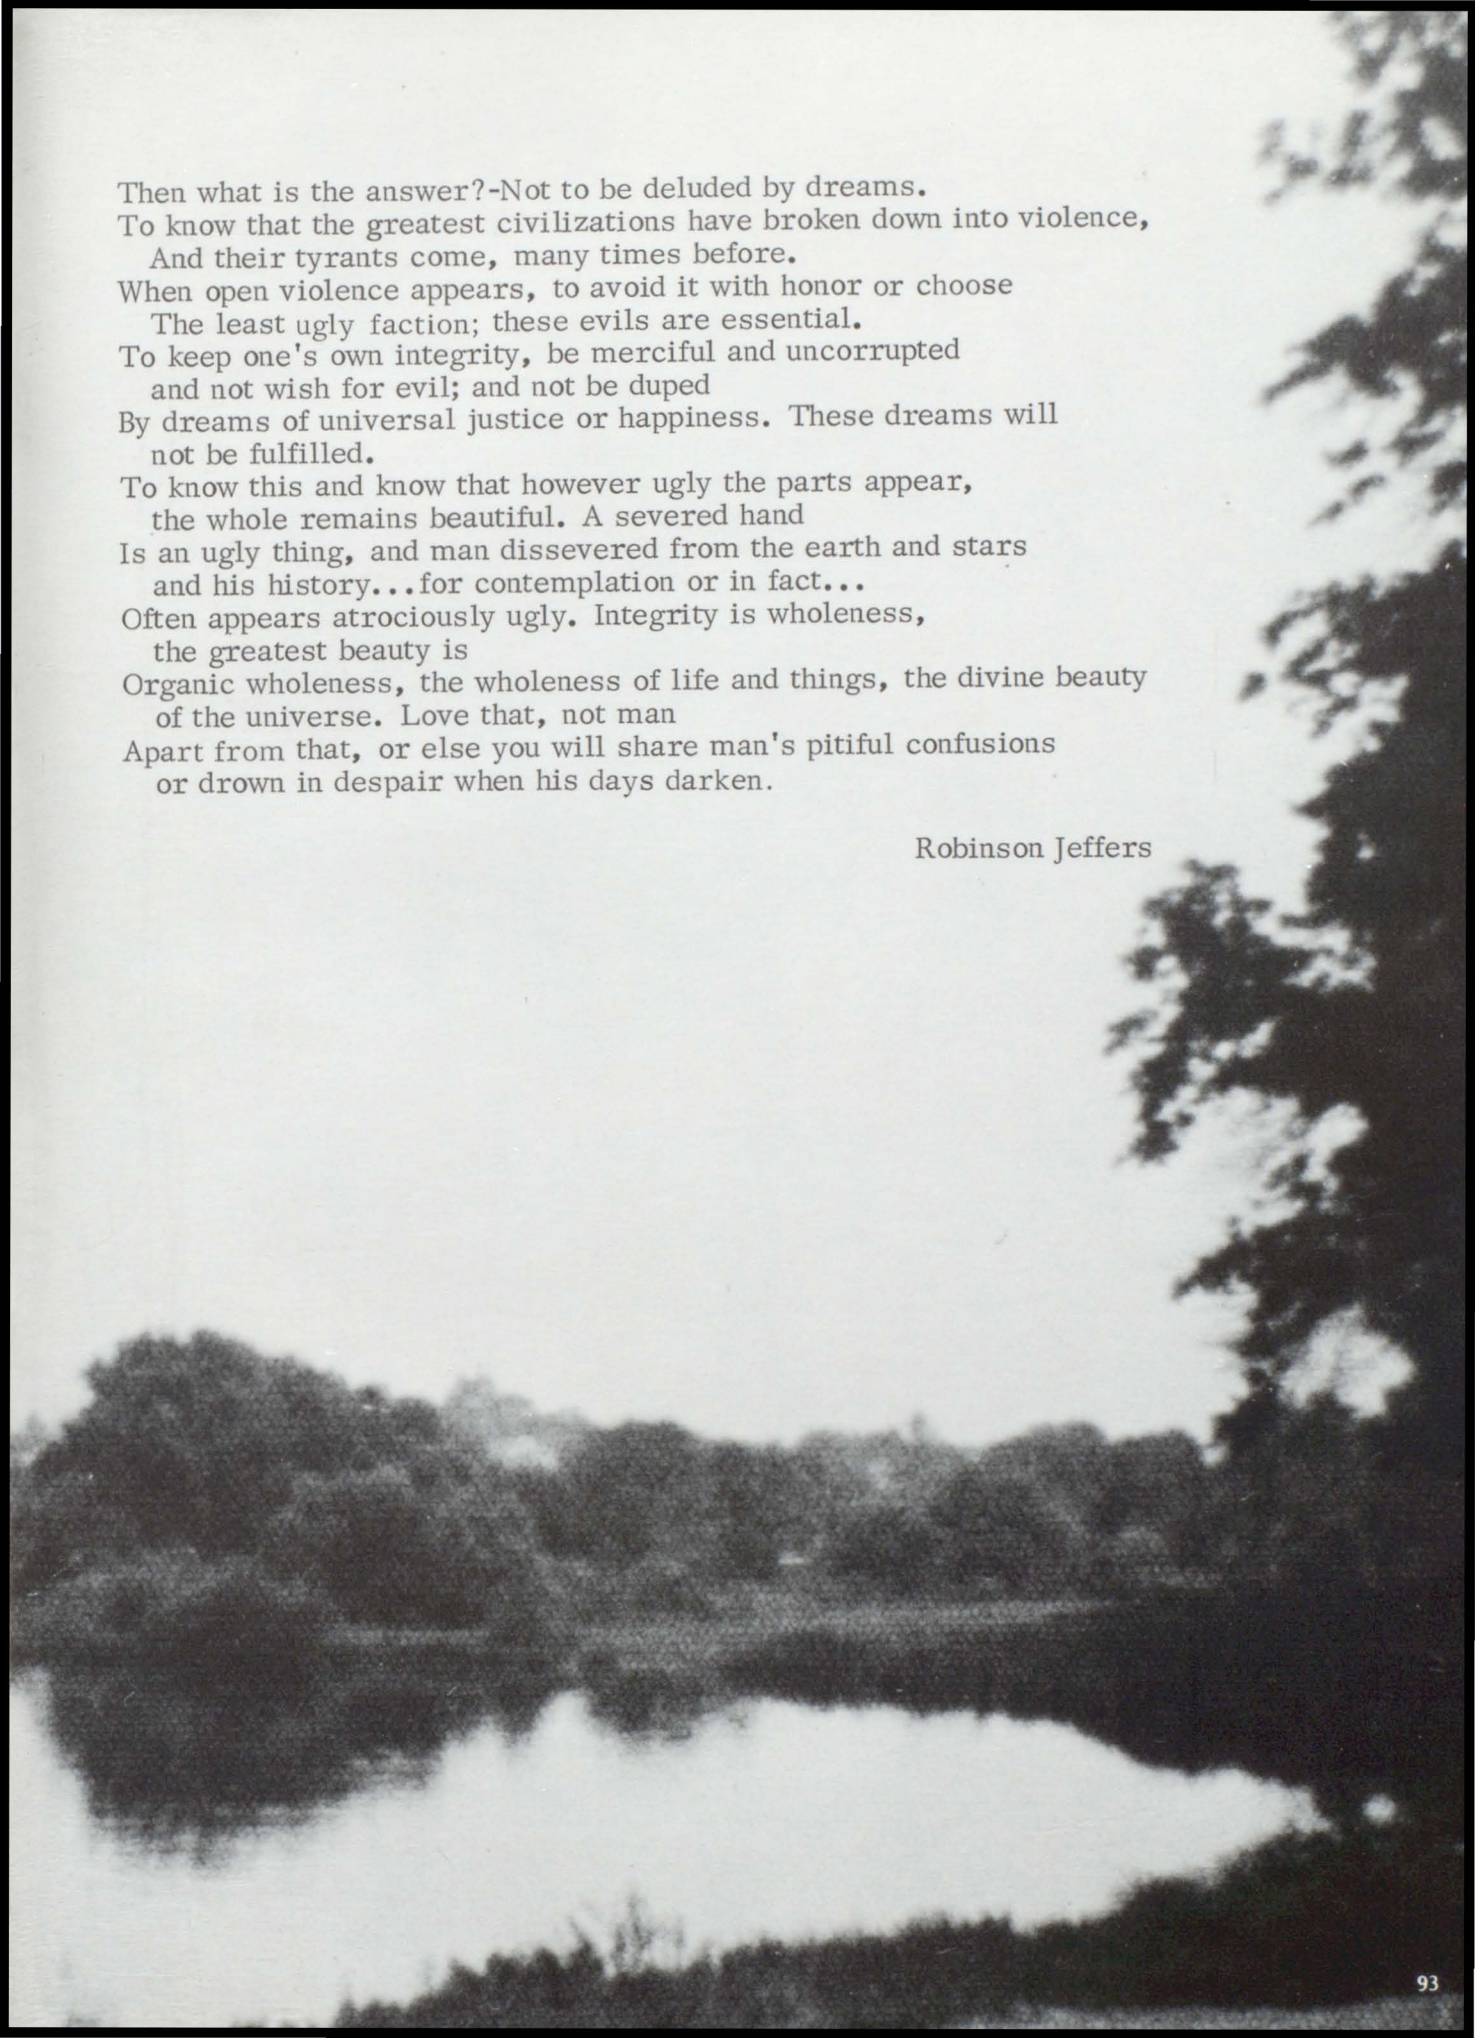

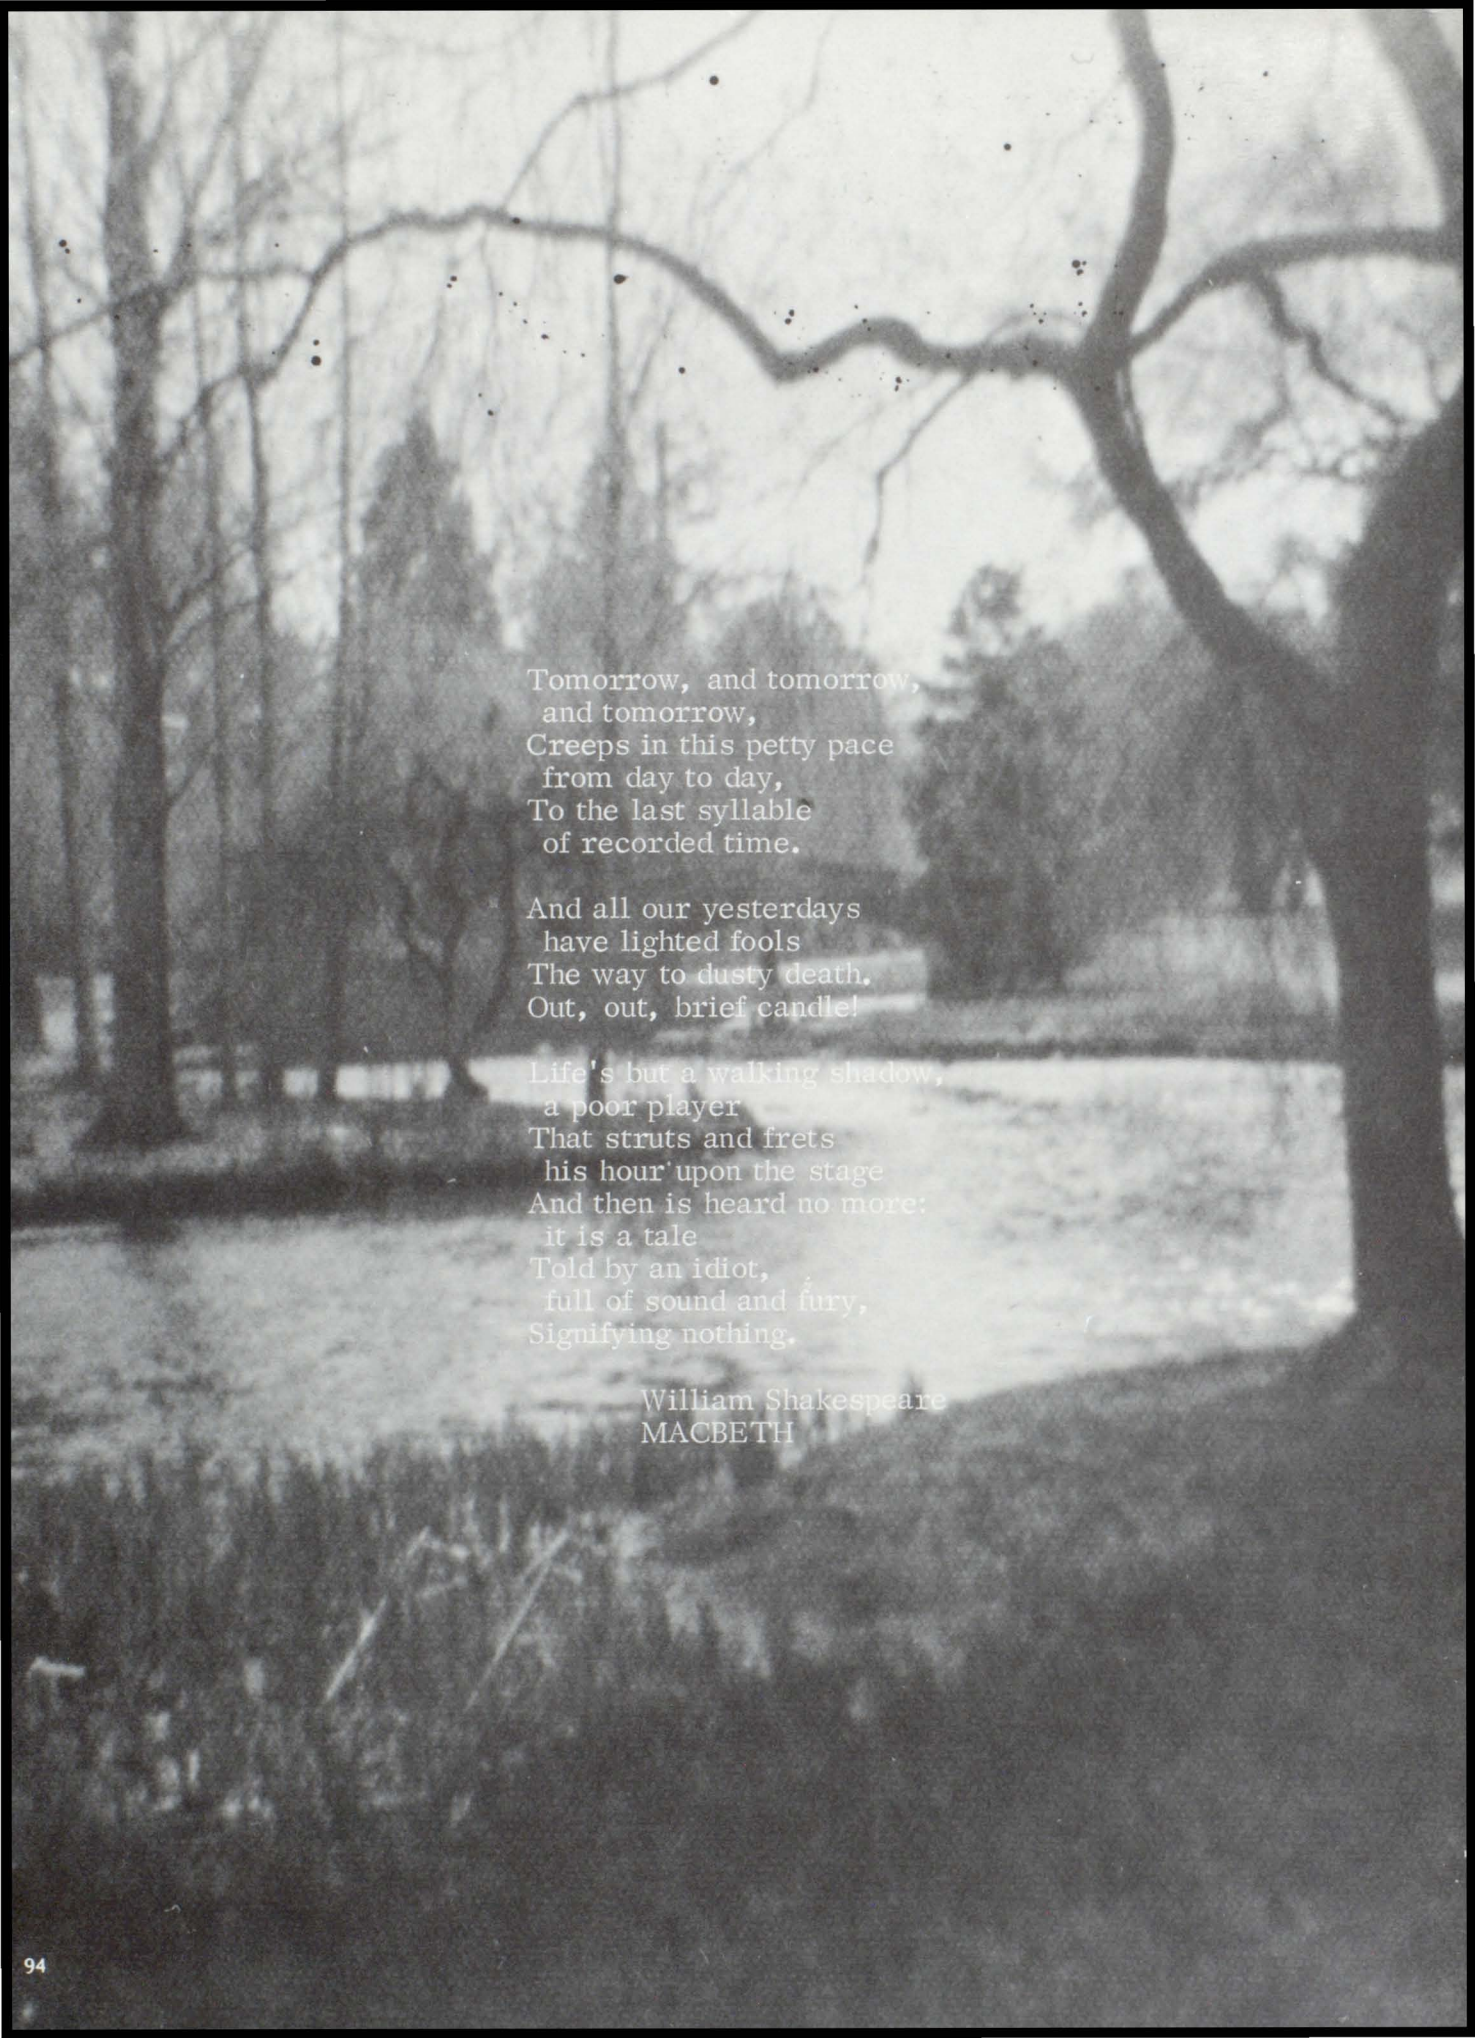

We have misused our land and allowed our wastes to pollute our air and waters. Mankind must change its ways or accept the very real prospect of extinction.

John D. Dingell

Then what is the answer?-Not to be deluded by dreams.
To know that the greatest civilizations have broken down into violence,
And their tyrants come, many times before.
When open violence appears, to avoid it with honor or choose
The least ugly faction; these evils are essential.
To keep one's own integrity, be merciful and uncorrupted and not wish for evil; and not be duped By dreams of universal justice or happiness. These dreams will not be fulfilled.
To know this and know that however ugly the parts appear, the whole remains beautiful. A severed hand
Is an ugly thing, and man dissevered from the earth and stars and his history...for contemplation or in fact...
Often appears atrociously ugly. Integrity is wholeness, the greatest beauty is Organic wholeness, the wholeness of life and things, the divine beauty of the universe. Love that, not man Apart from that, or else you will share man's pitiful confusions or drown in despair when his days darken.

Robinson Jeffers

Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow,
Creeps in this petty pace
from day to day,
To the last syllable of recorded time.

And all our yesterdays
have lighted fools
The way to dusty death.
Out, out, brief candle!

Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage
And then is heard no more:
it is a tale
Told by an idiot,
full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing.

The worth of a state, in the long run, is the worth of the individuals composing it.

John Stuart Mill

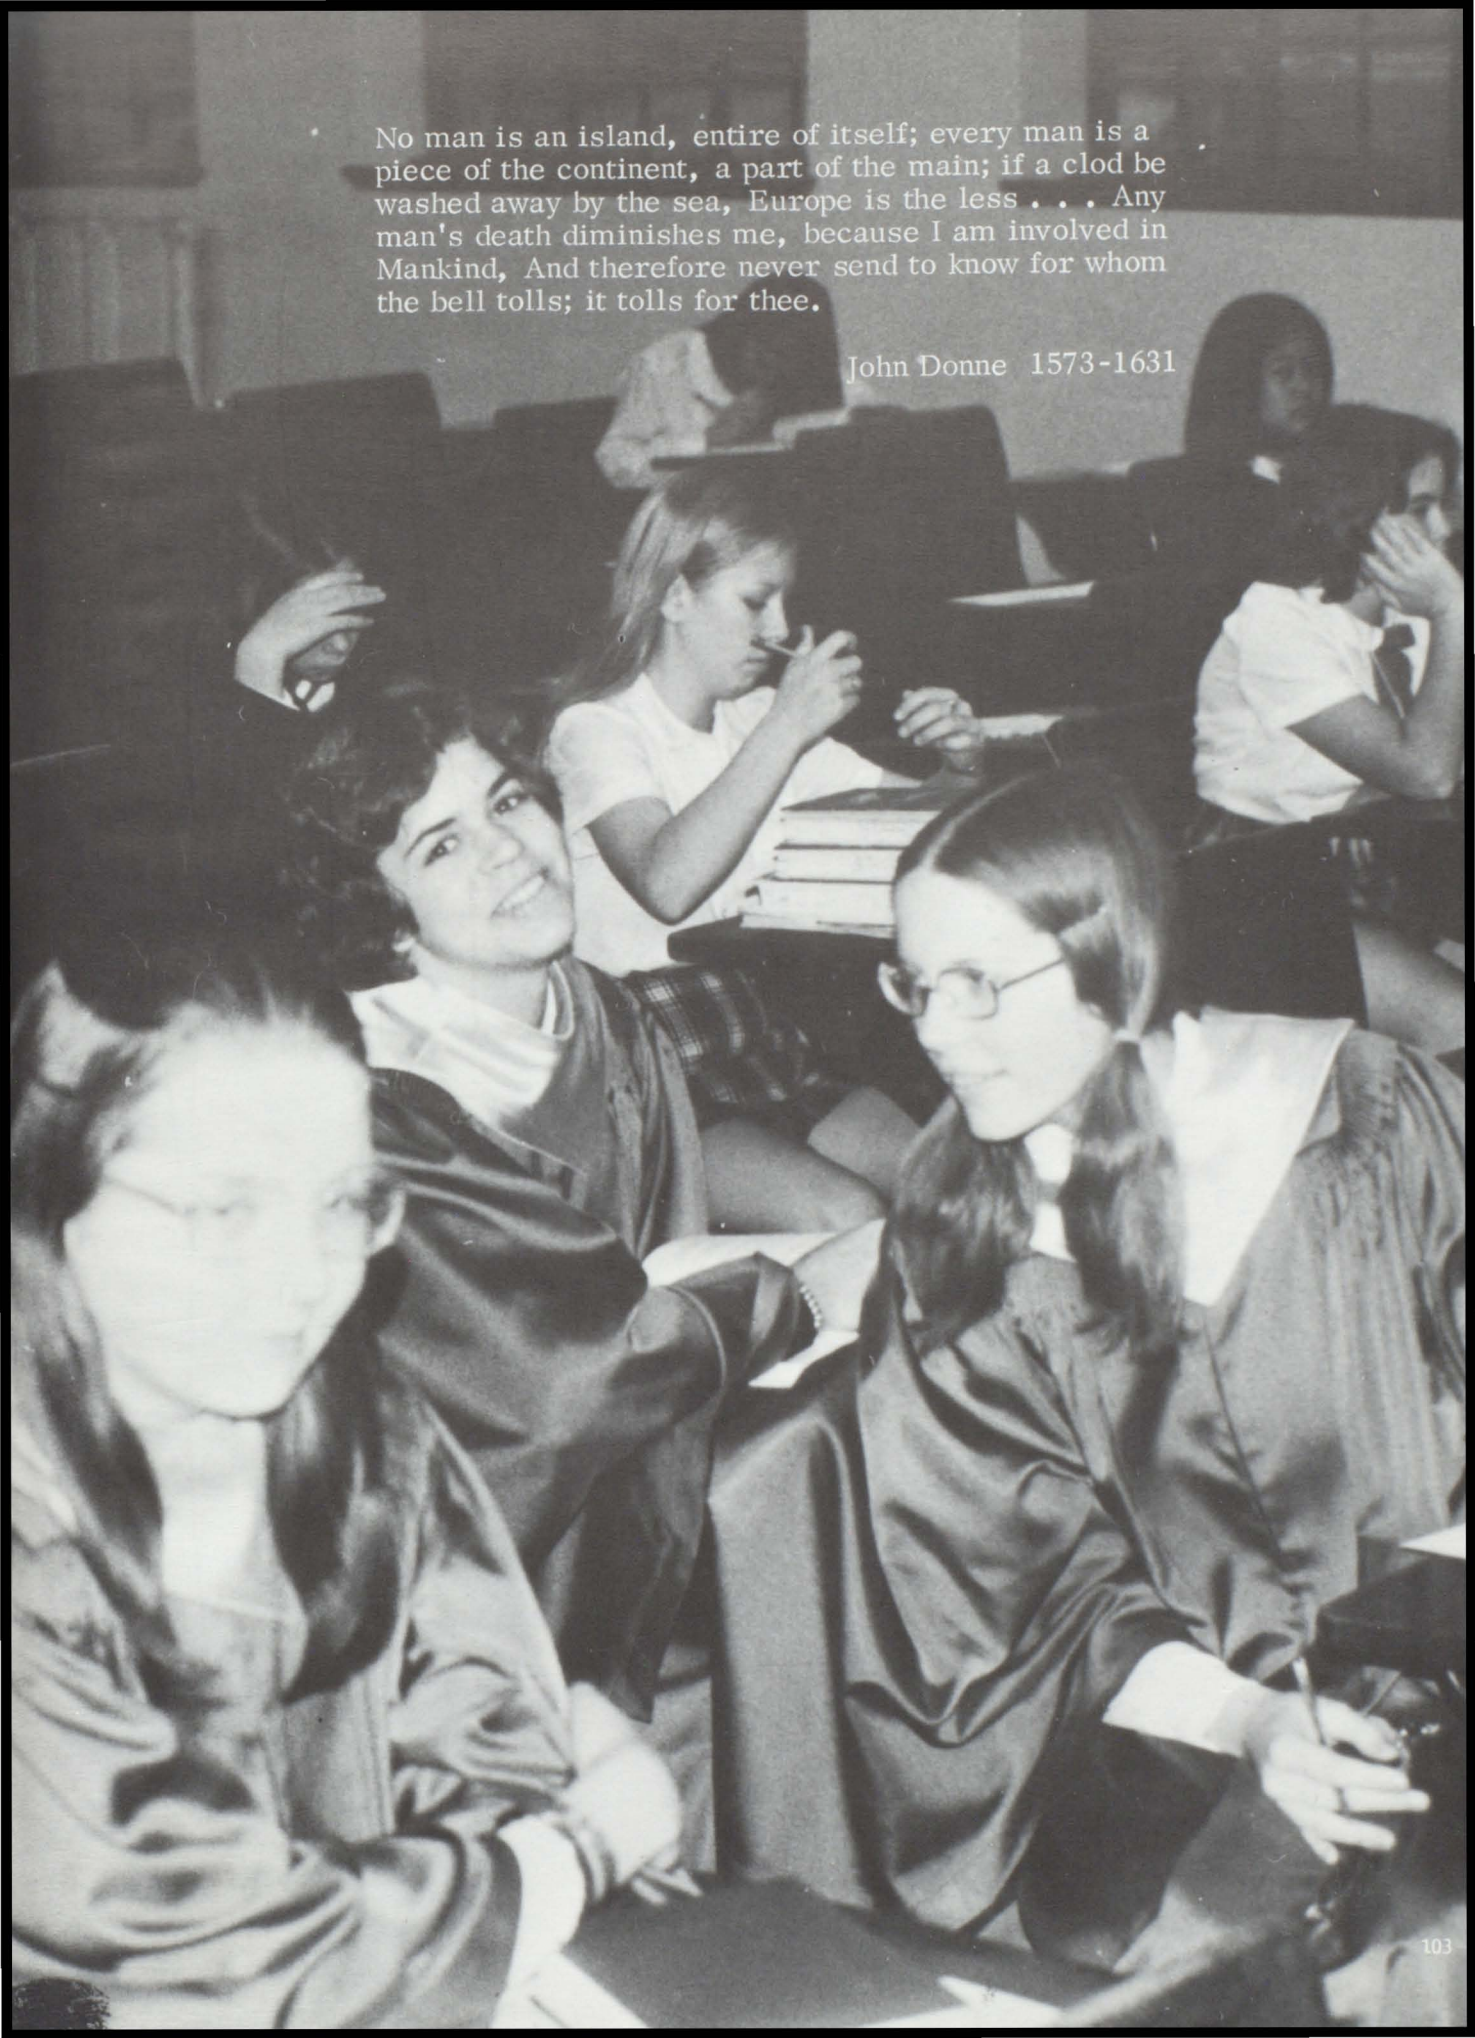

Peace comes not from the absence of conflict in life, but from the ability to cope with it.

Anonymous

Peace comes from within. Do not seek it without.

Buddha

No man is an island, entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main; if a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less . . . Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in Mankind, And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.
John Donne 1573-1631

As for me, all I know is that I know nothing.

Socrates
